

Ambassadors

Rewards and Responsibilities

REWARDS:

Besides making lifelong friends, improving your self esteem, and being a vital part of EMCC, being an Ambassador offers other rewards as well:

- Each first time member will receive $700.00 per semester.
- An Ambassador retreat/workshop.
- EMCC Ambassador polos are given to each member.
- Being an EMCC Ambassador looks great on a resume' for university transfer scholarships and job opportunities for the future.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- All Ambassadors must maintain a minimum of 12 hours per semester and maintain a 3.0 or better GPA.
- Each Ambassador must maintain an office hour or attend a leadership class once a week. This will be determined by the campus recruiting coordinator.
- Ambassador members will be required to participate in activities that occur, not only during the day, but also at night or during the weekend. Work is not an acceptable excuse for lack of participation in scheduled activities.
- Ambassador members are required to assist with fall and spring registration.
- All members will attend college days and/or nights at the high schools in our district.
- All members will learn about EMCC and become very informed about our campuses and what EMCC offers.
- Campus tours will be given to high school seniors and others who visit our campuses.
- Each member will participate in phone calling and/or letter writing campaigns to recruit and/or gather information from prospective students.
- All Ambassadors are required to participate in school related activities throughout the year such as football games, community involvement, etc...
- Ambassador members will be expected to assist with any special meetings or events on campus directly related to recruiting.
- Each person serving as an Ambassador member must be extremely dependable, have a friendly, outgoing, enthusiastic personality, use good taste in dress and style, have a willingness to help others, possess strong leadership qualities and good communication skills, be free of disciplinary action, and have the ability to devote the time and effort needed to become a successful part of the EMCC student recruiting team.
- Participation in other miscellaneous recruiting and public relations duties as they arise will also be required.
- Each member will serve for 1 school year. Any member who wishes to serve for a second year must re-apply. Any member who cannot complete his/her term may be required to pay back their Ambassador scholarship.
- All ambassadors report directly to the campus recruiting coordinator.
